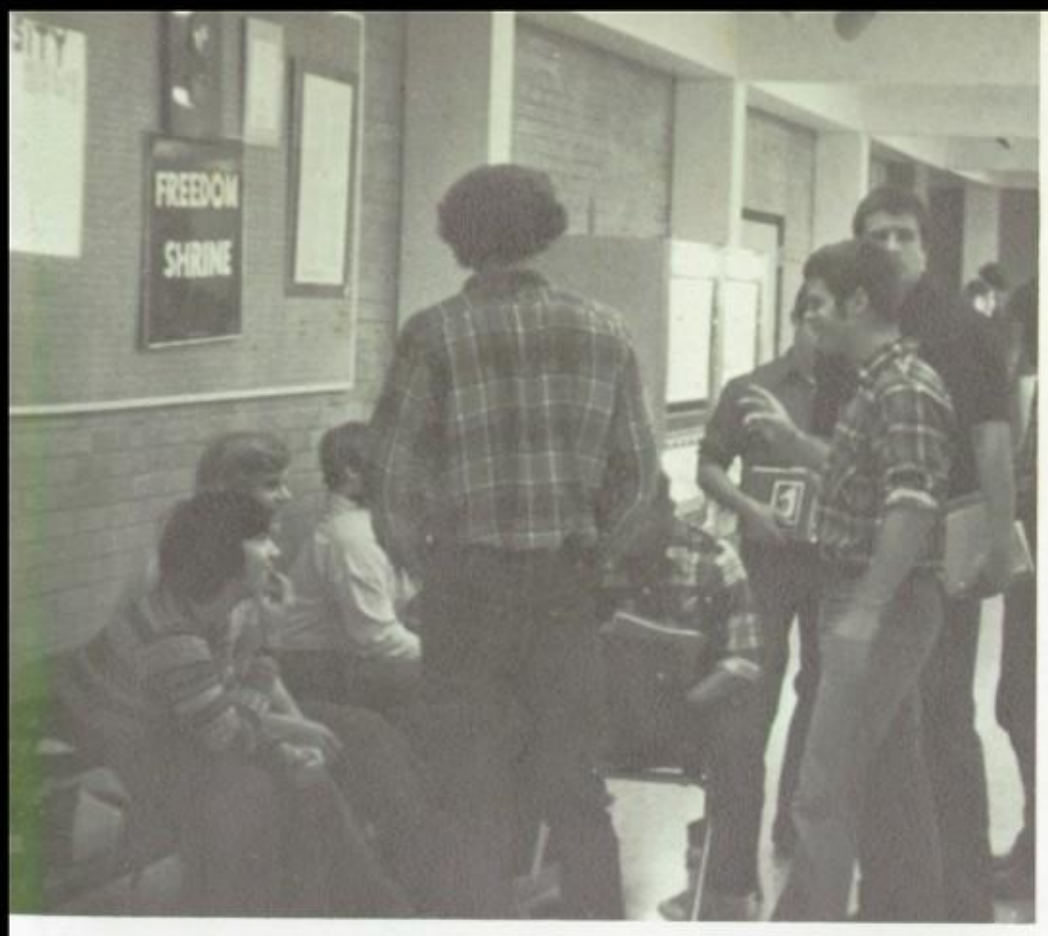
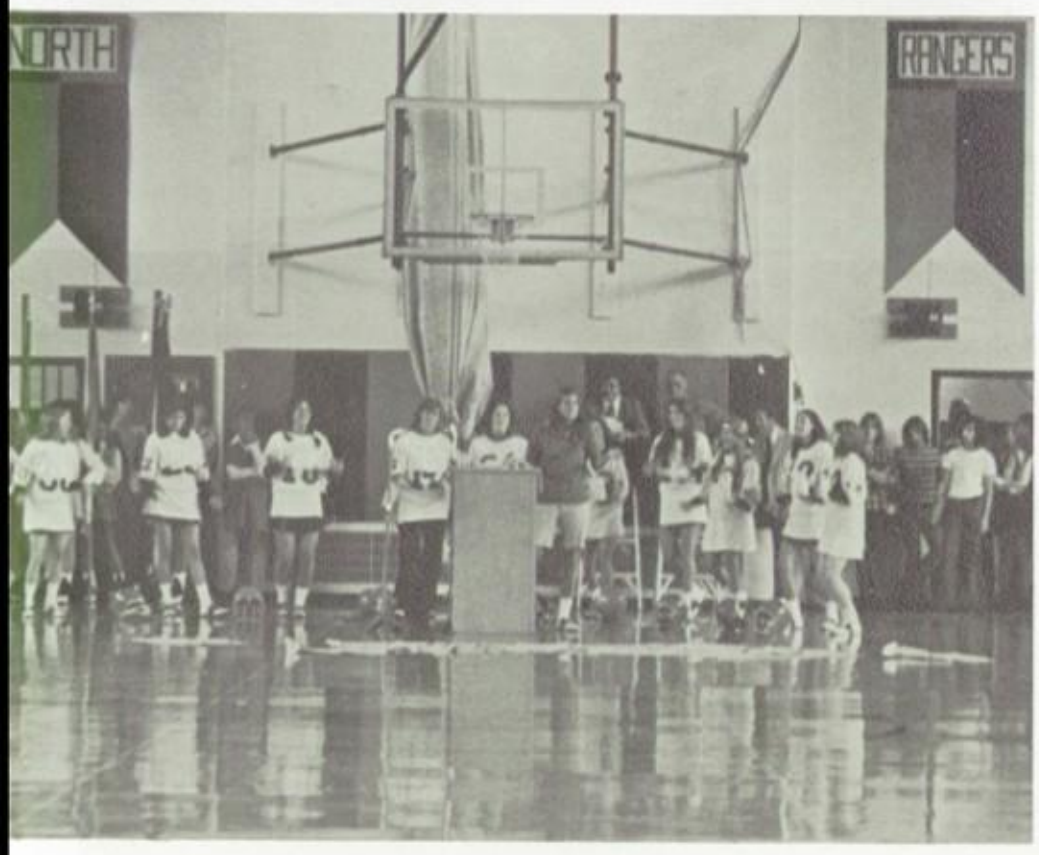
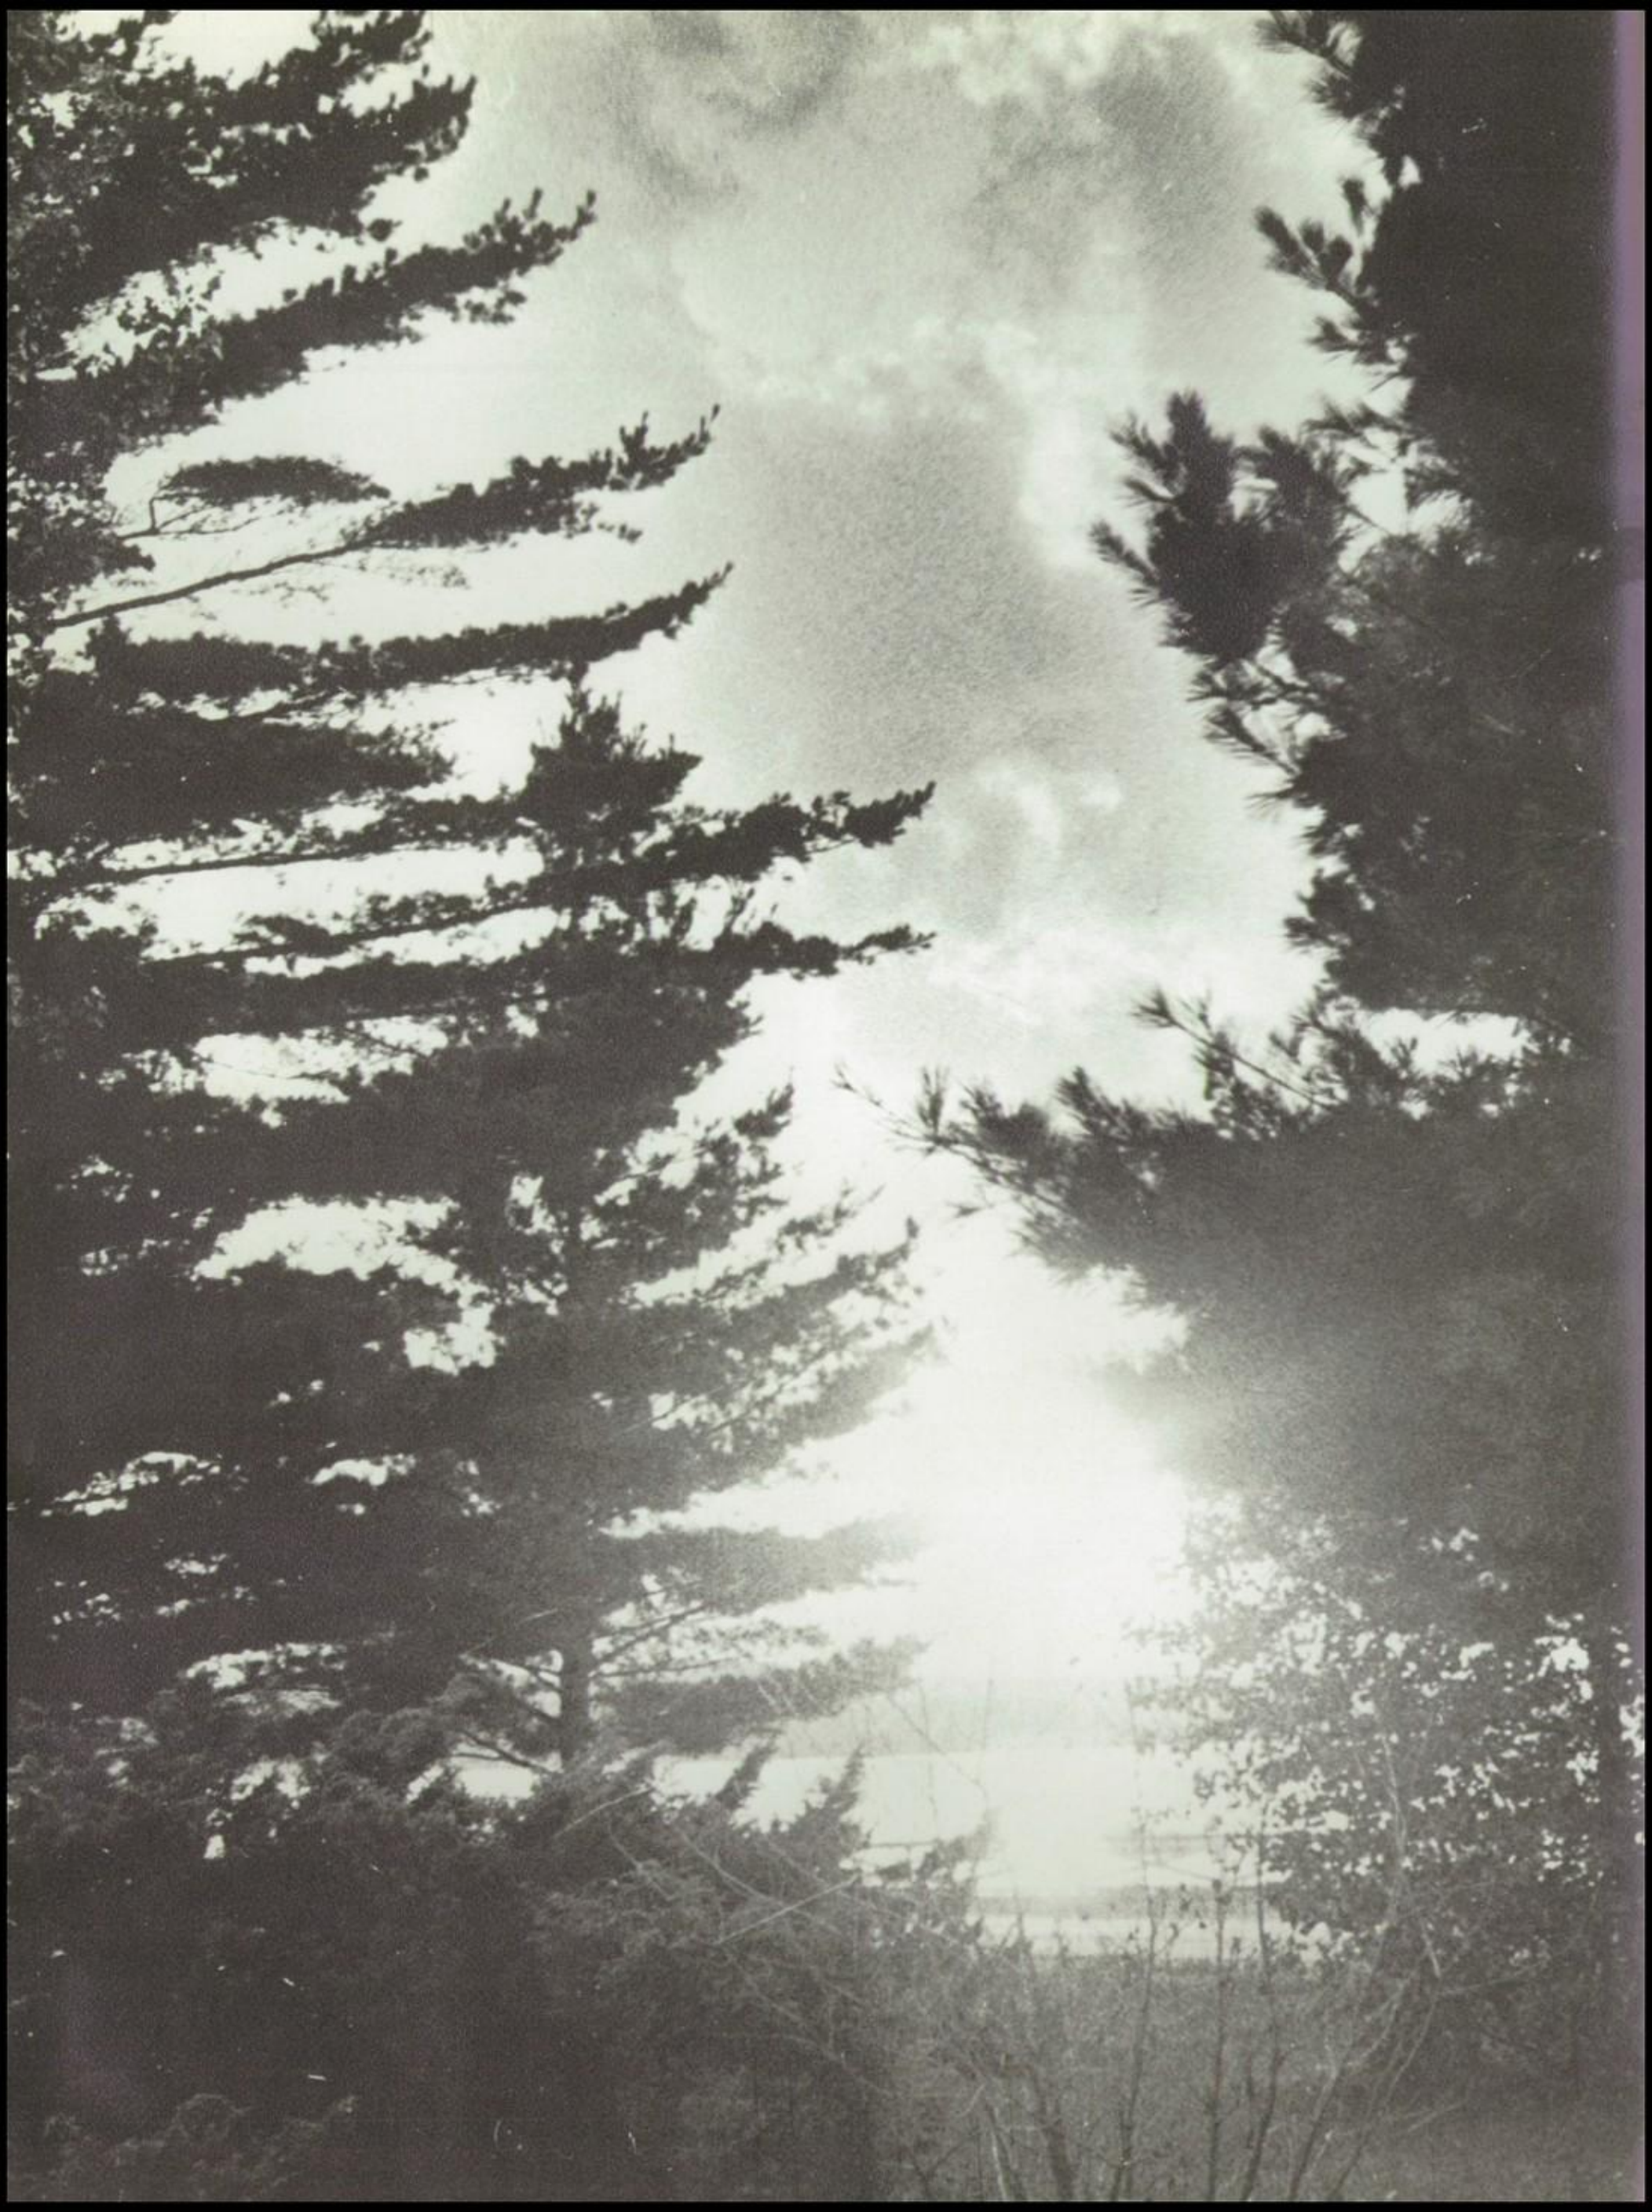
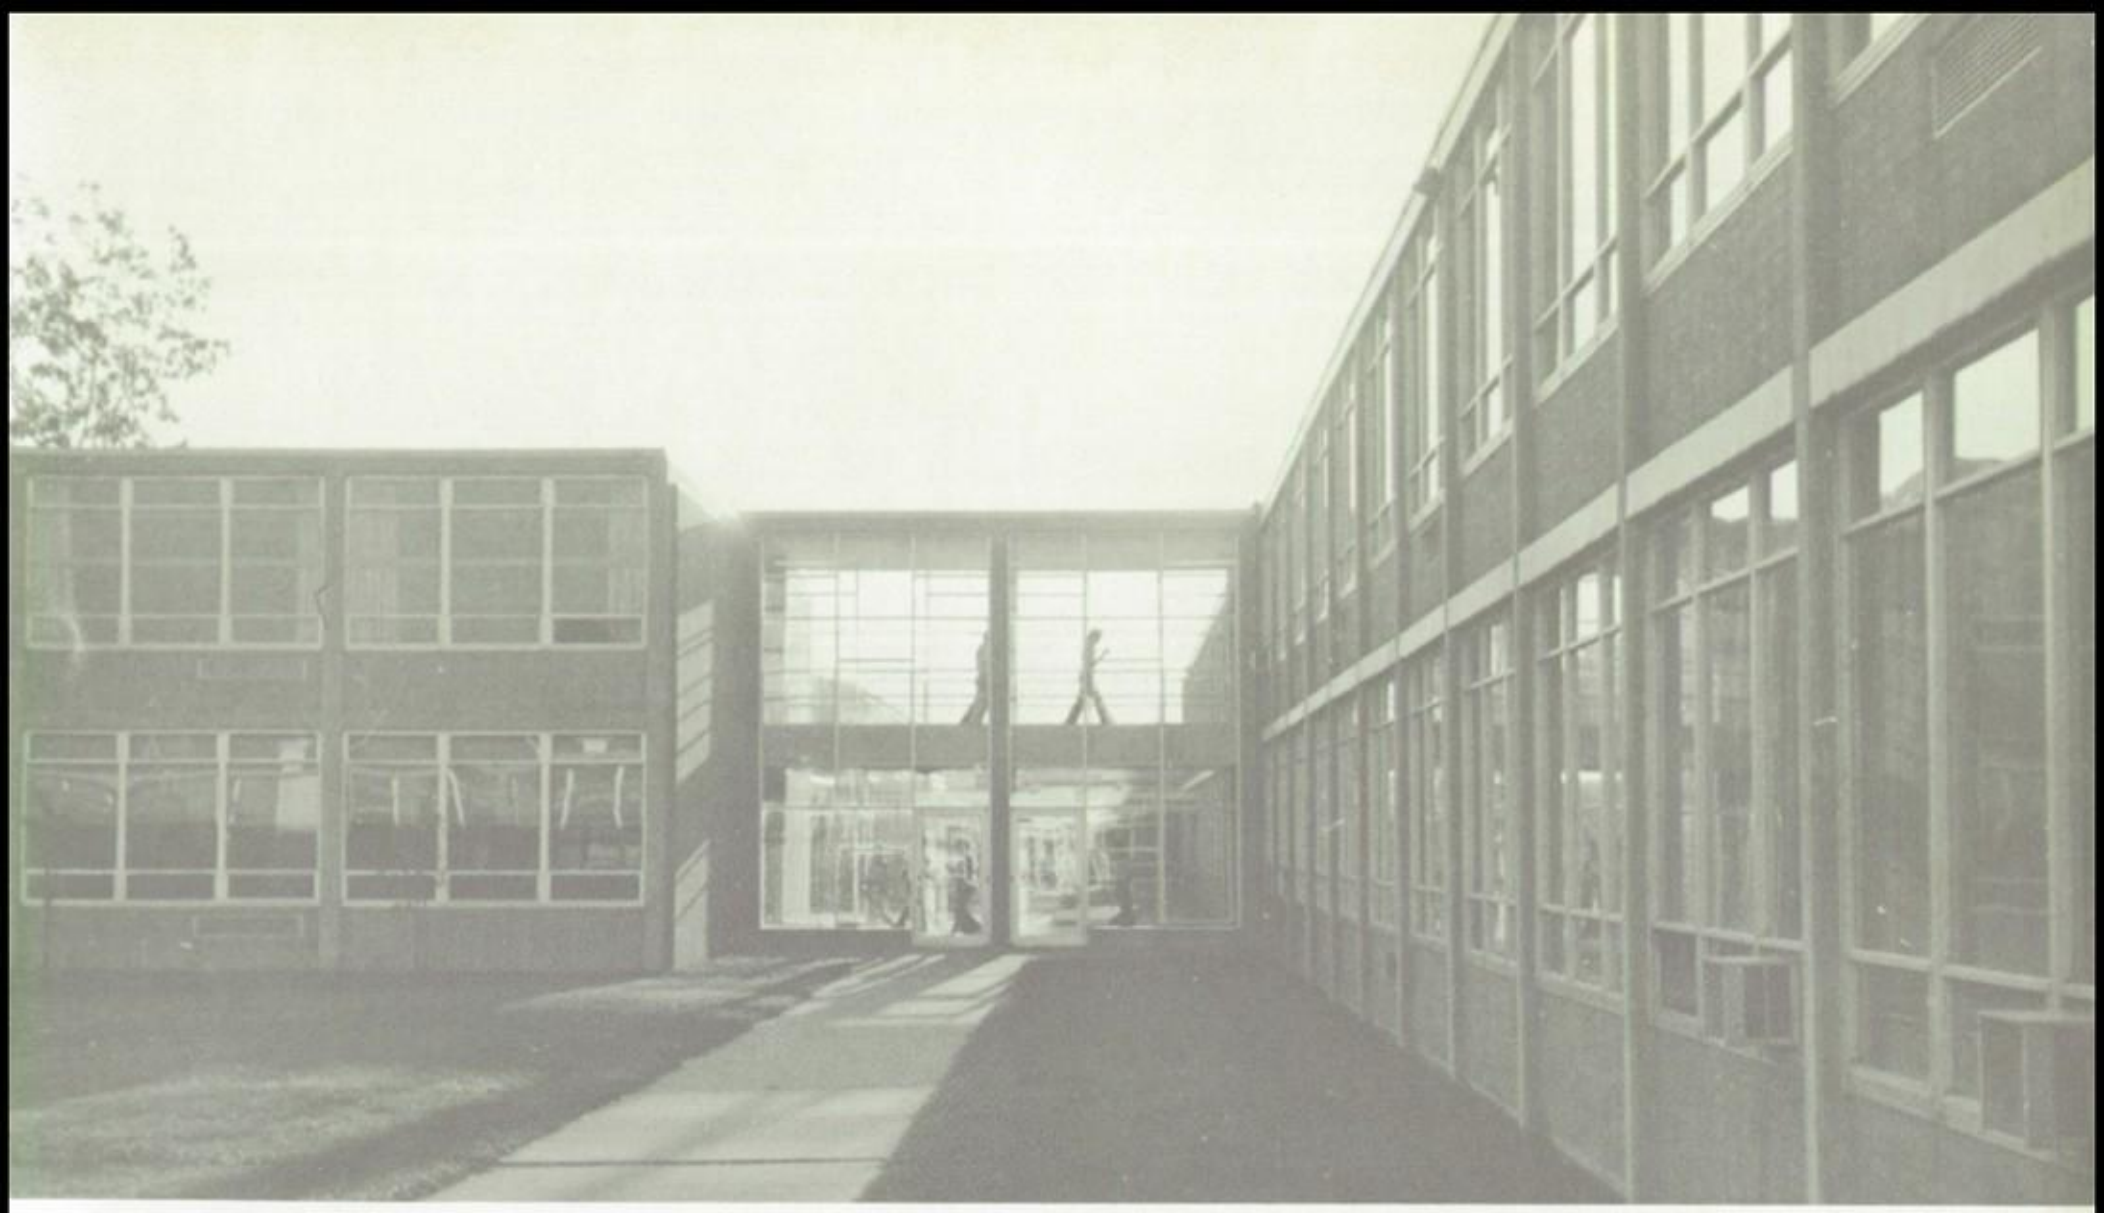
AWARENESS IS . . .





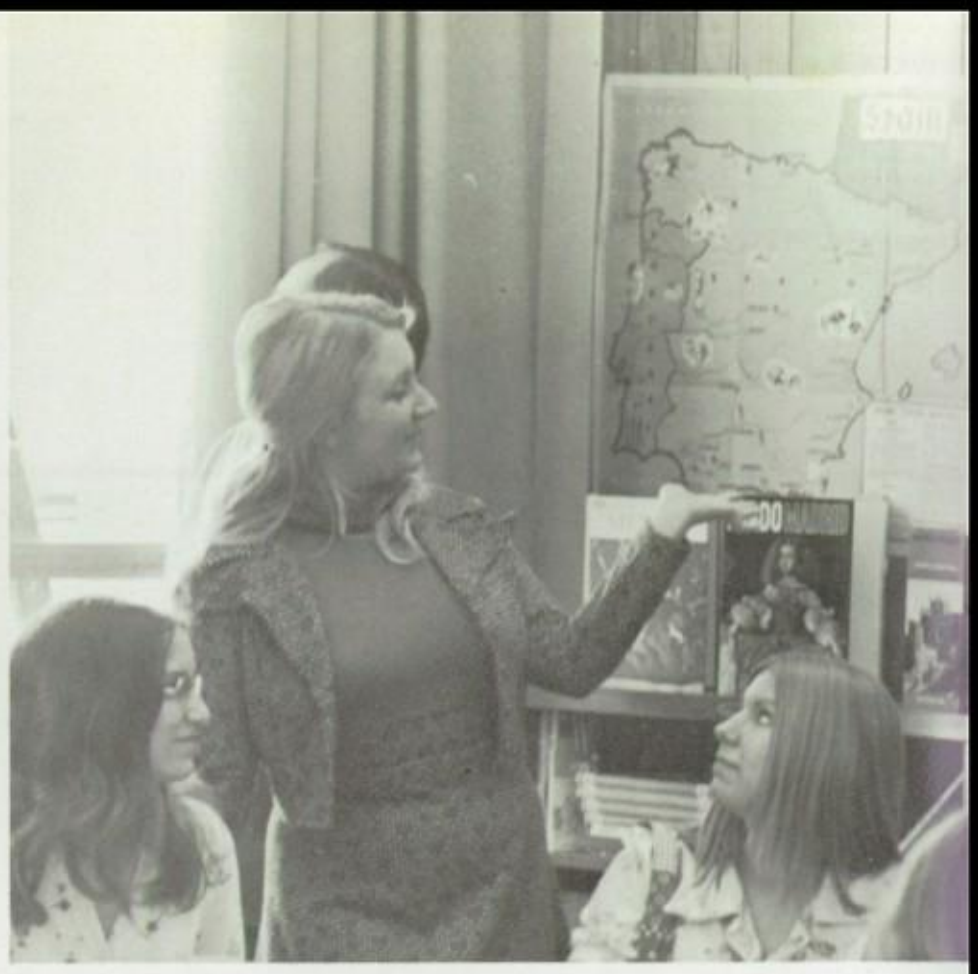
Knowing That You Are But One of Millions . . .





a Speck of Dust in an Endless Ray of Light.

and Yet, You Are Unique, You Are Needed.



Soaking up a Bit of Light That Comes Your Way, and Letting in the Dark Side, Too.

For Without Darkness, Light is Not Nearly so Impressive.

Knowing That Each Man Holds a Place in the Sun and That it Can't Be Held by Any Machine or Any Other Man.

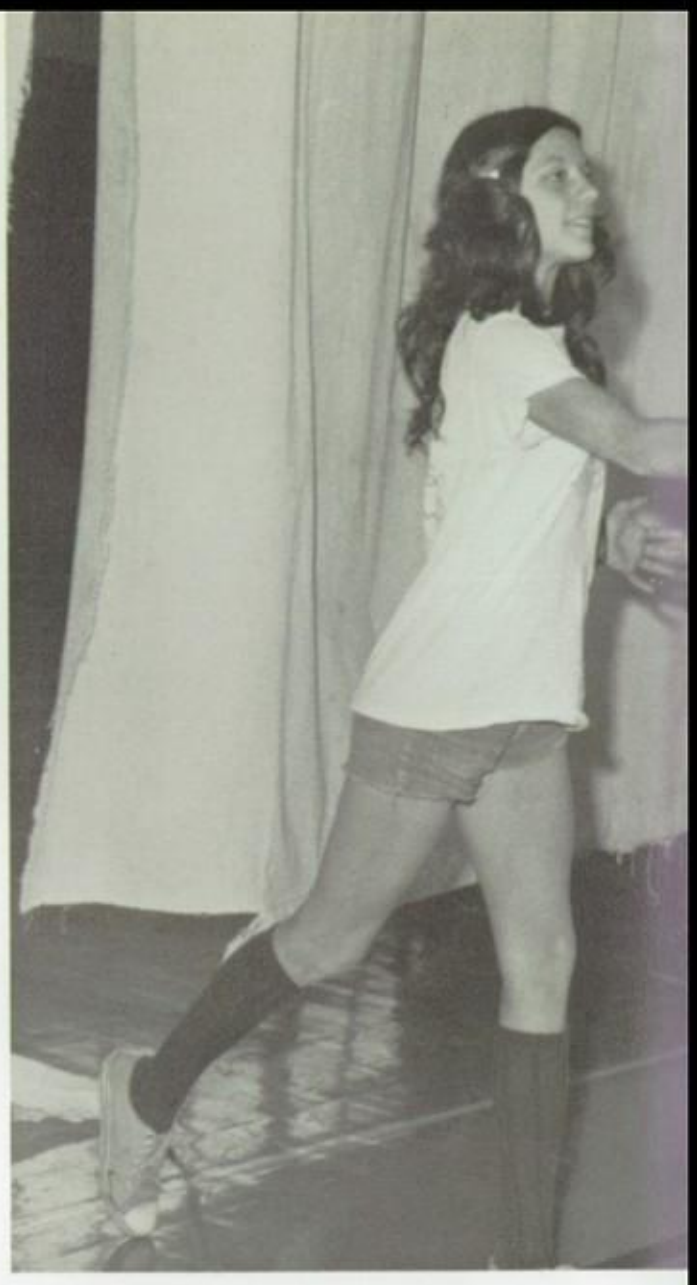
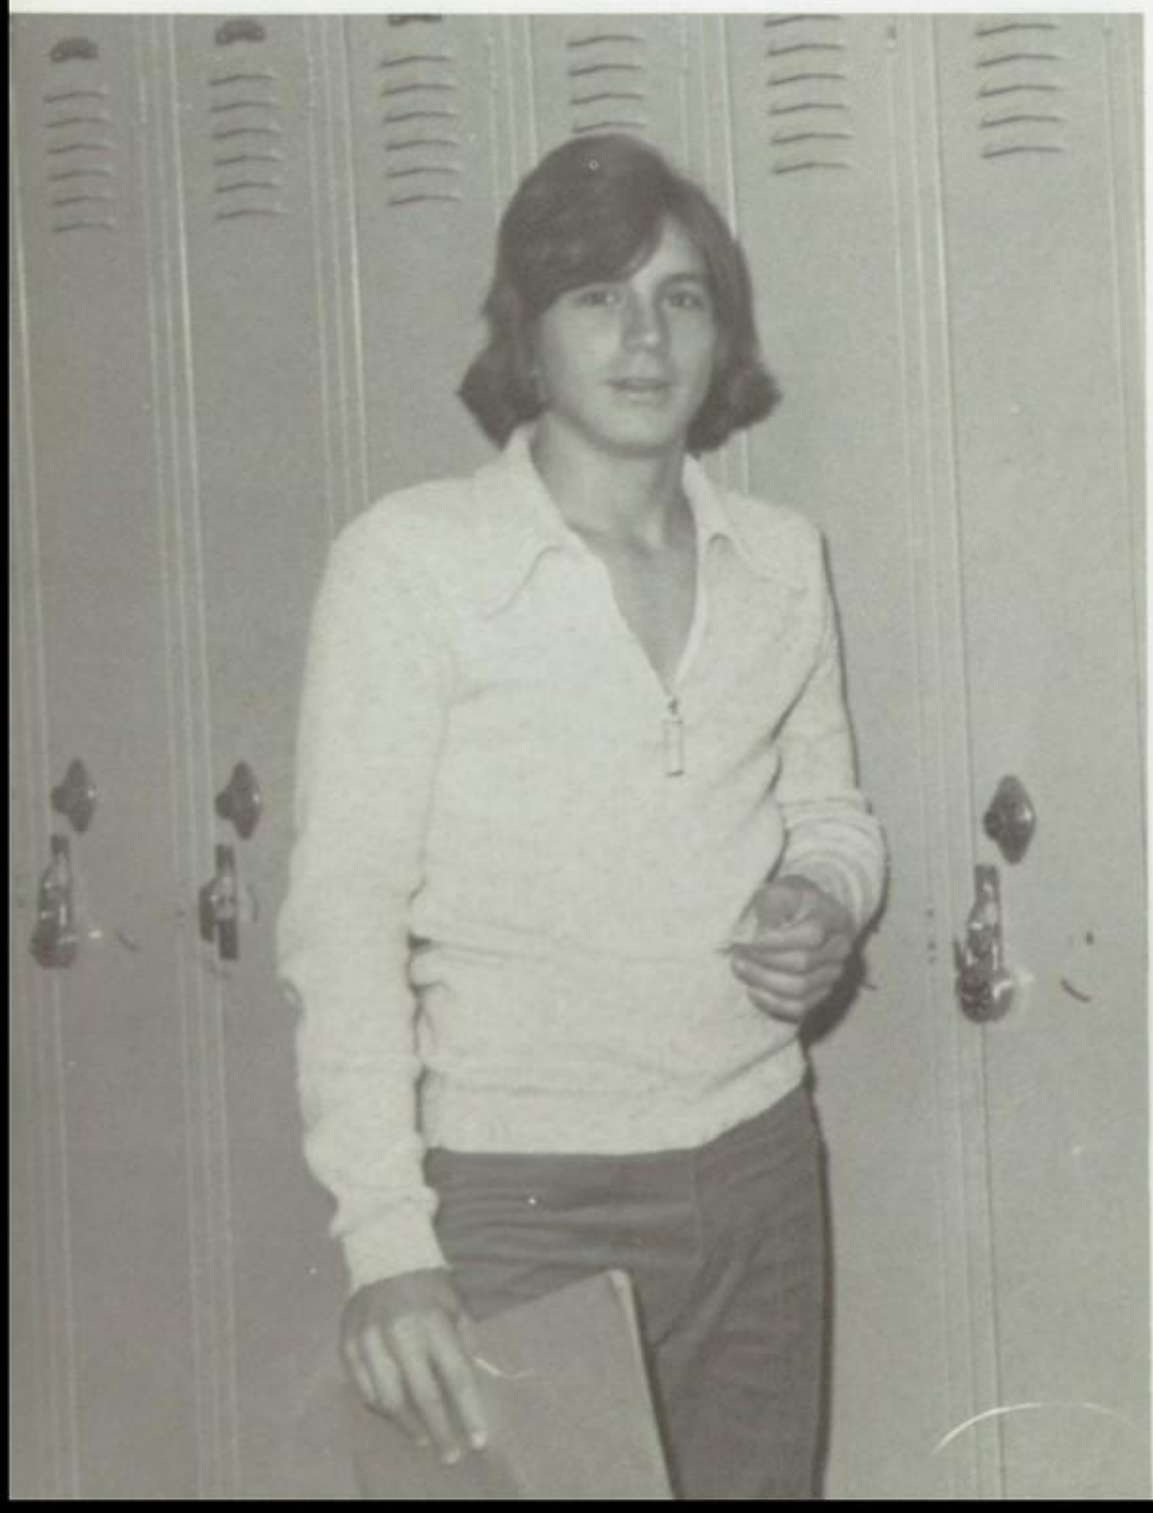
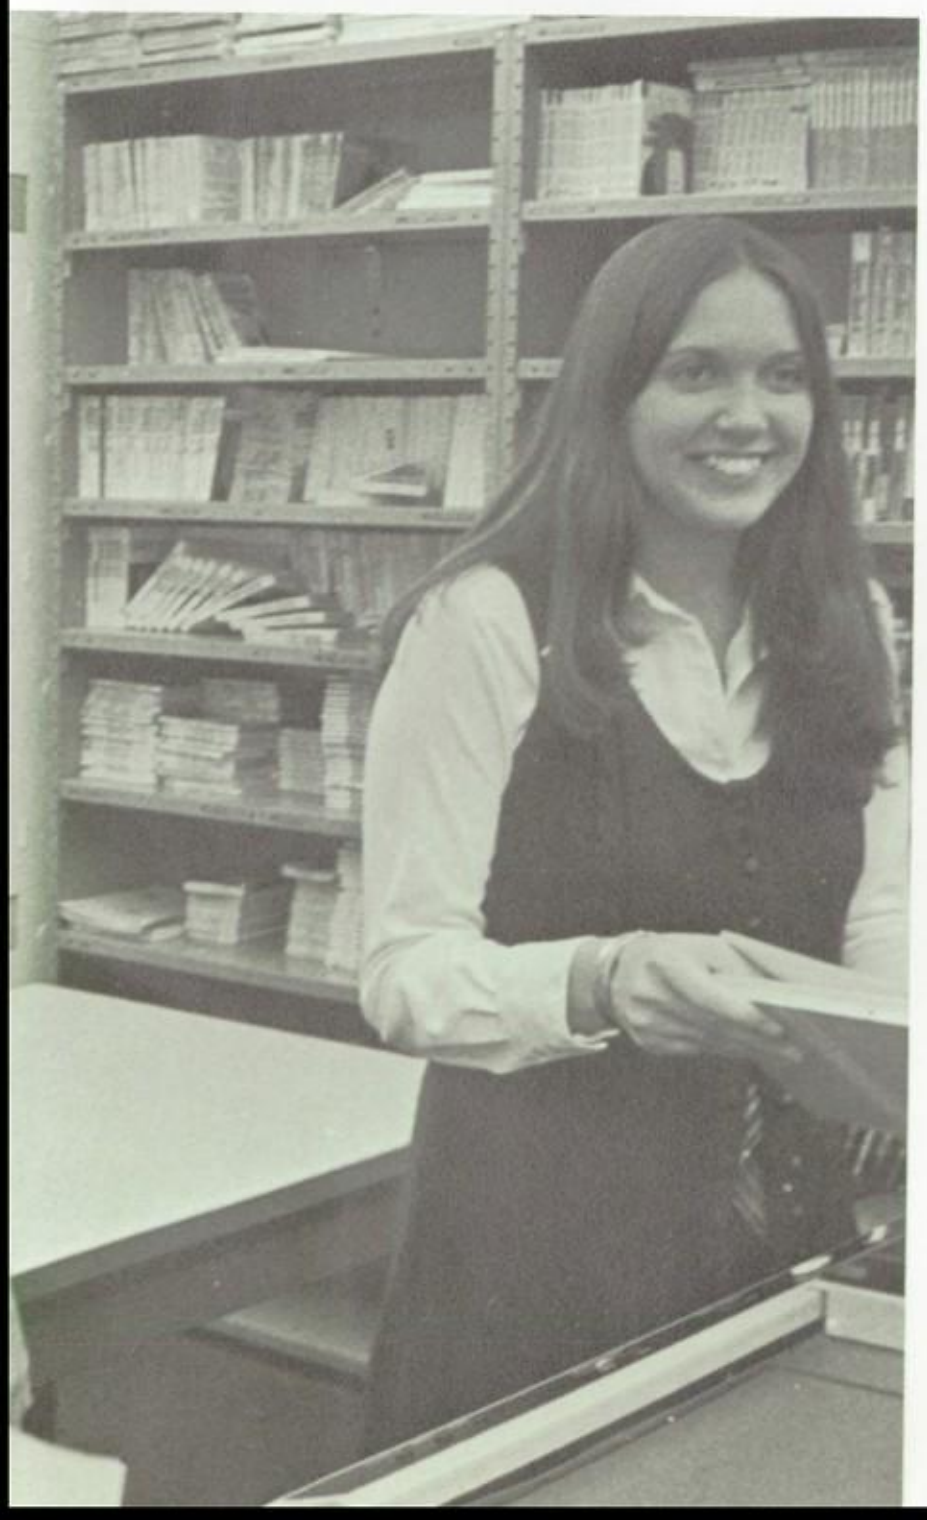
Living and Experiencing Each Day to the Fullest.



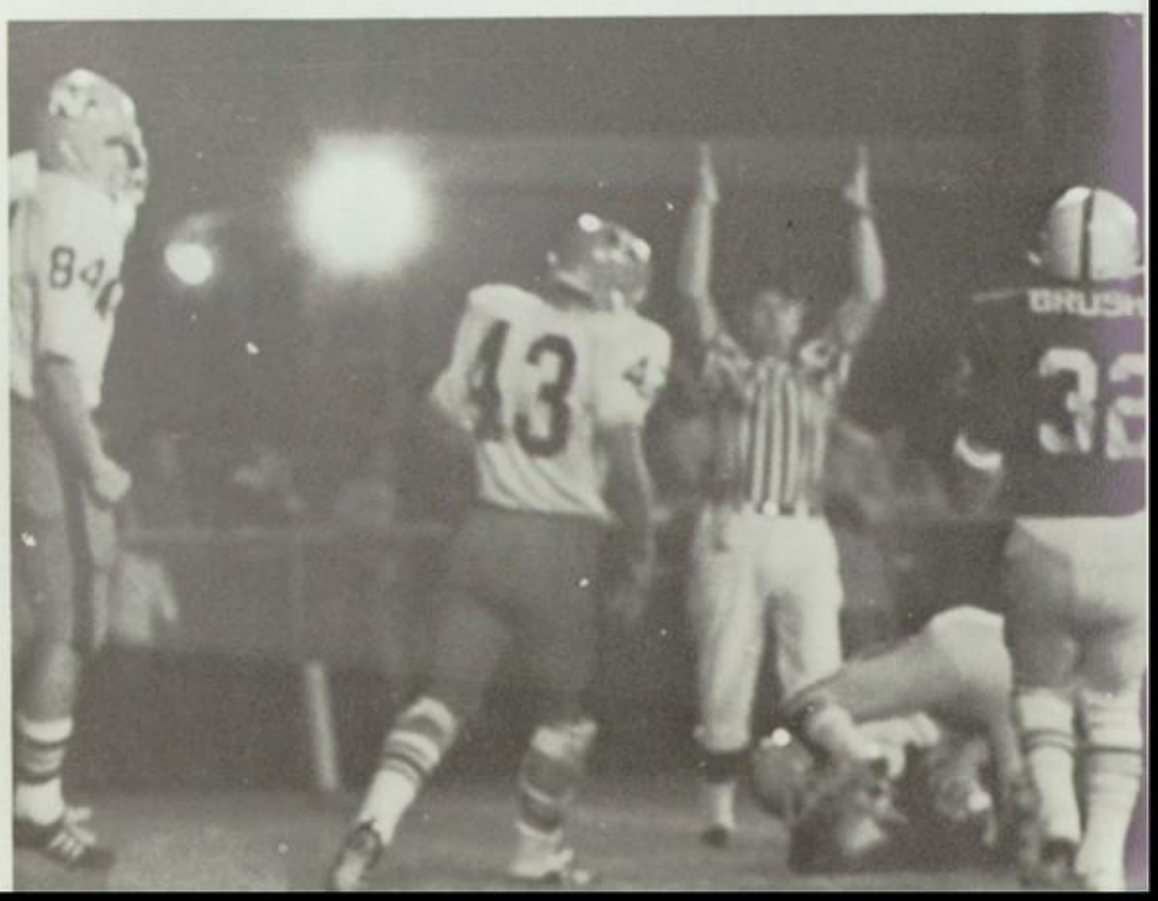
Awareness is to Experience and to Hold . . .



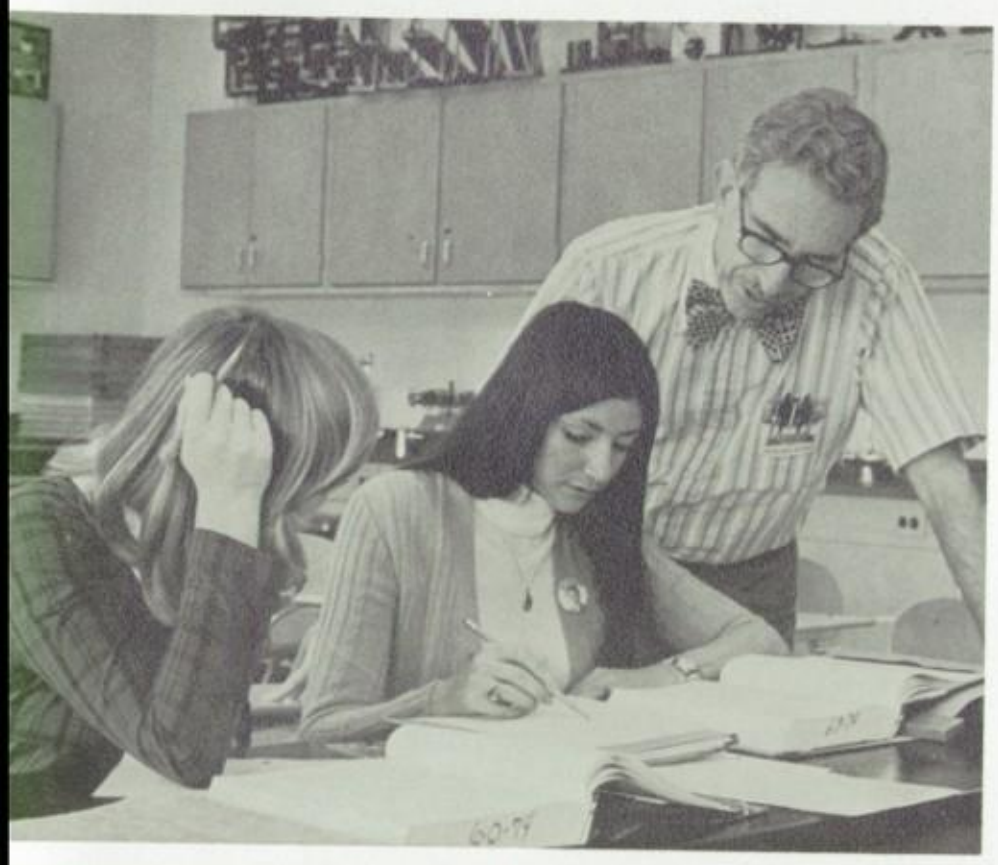
to Know . . . to Live.

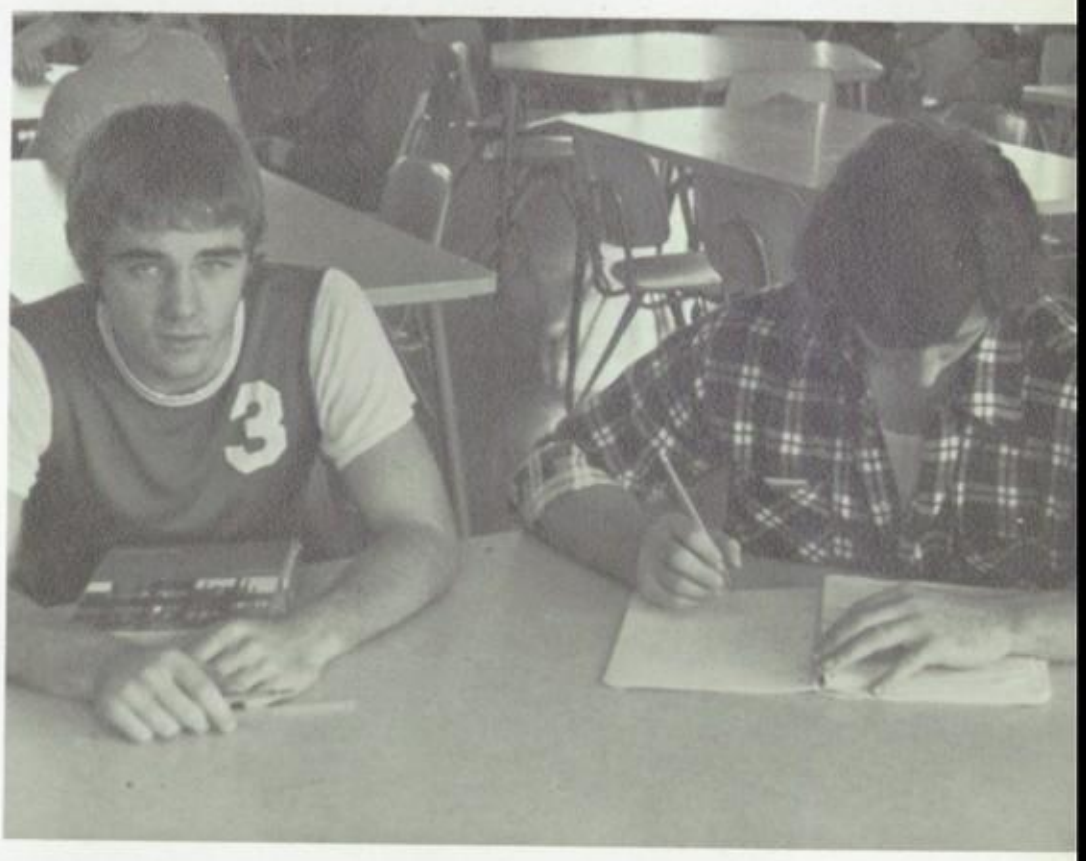


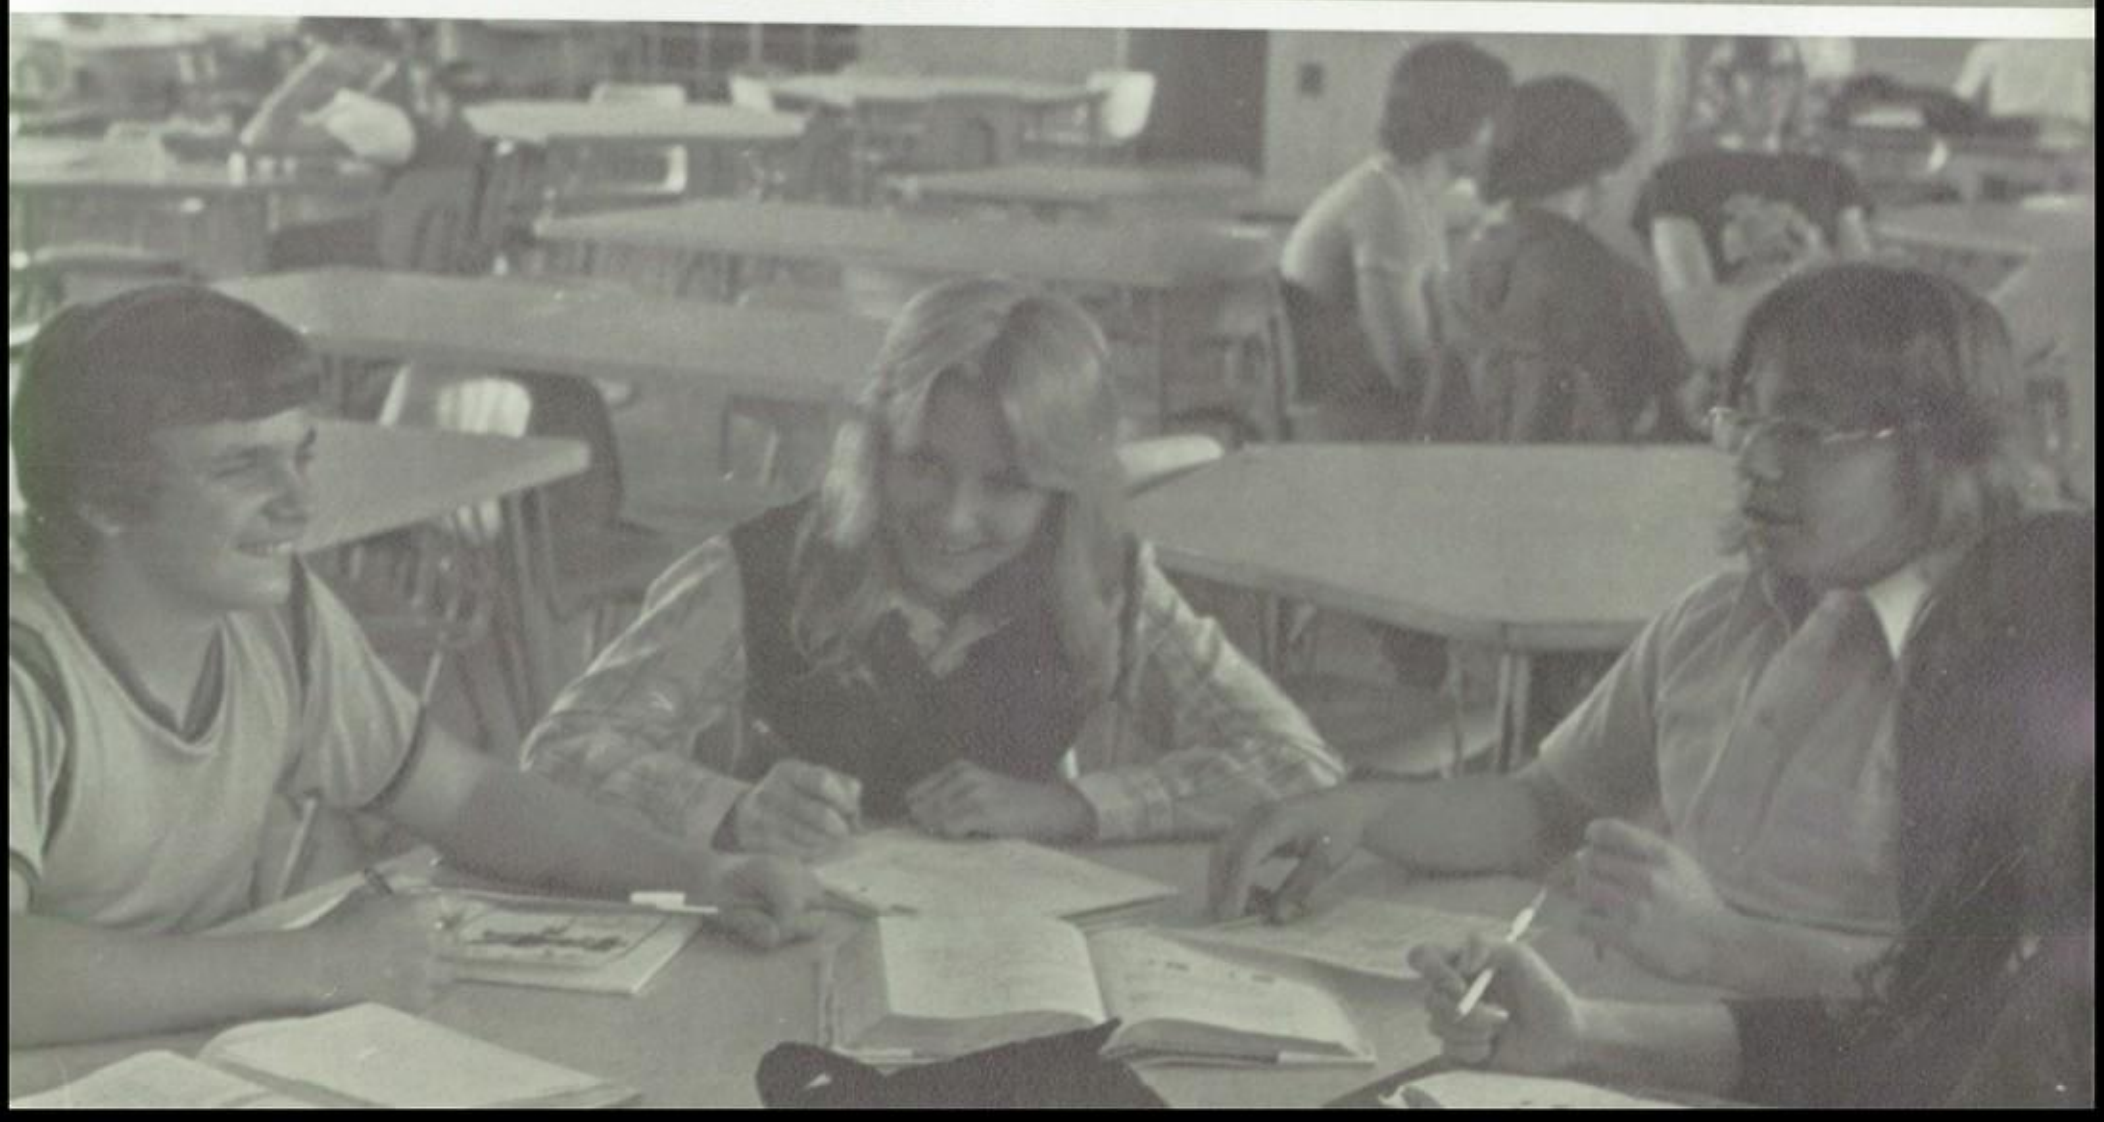
Awareness is Remembering



Awareness is Learning







Awareness is Really

the Whole Idea

This edition of the Lens has primarily been compiled for the sake of keeping the memories of the 1974-75 year gone by. The members of the staff realize that we cannot meet every individual's expectations, or his concept of a good yearbook, but sincerely hope that each student can find something to look back upon as the years slip away. This is the purpose of the Lens—to capture the high school moments many of us will never share again.

I would now like to express my great appreciation for all the people who have helped me with this endeavor. First and foremost, Mr. Hobart, our patient and helpful advisor; our publisher's representative, Mike Kingery, who assisted me greatly by offering hope when I felt there was none; Raimor's photographers who were an invaluable aid to me. Lastly, many thanks to my staff for sacrificing their hours of time. Without any of the above people I couldn't have completed the job and there wouldn't have been a Lens '75.

Sincerely yours,

Shirley Ivancic
